Dear all (particularly those who are putting in the extra time and effort in running the PRC),

Here's something interesting from the DET PRC 2006 website, from our Premier:

"Attending the annual presentation ceremony at the Powerhouse Museum, the Premier said the Challenge had grown remarkably since 36,000 children took part in 2001-02.... The passion for reading books is flourishing in our schools and at home," Mr Iemma said."

"I am extremely grateful to the classroom teachers, public librarians, parents and carers who have played such an integral role in encouraging young people to read and enjoy quality literature."

Err .... did someone not get mentioned?
